On October 13, 1985, radio Station WBCN in Boston began a contest to see which school within its listening area was # 1 in school spirit. The prize for being first was $5004 in cash to the winning school and a rock concert to be performed by a band called 'til tuesday.

Rules for the concert were as follows: The words "WBCN 'til tuesday Lowell High School" had to be written on 3x5 index cards. The school which submitted the most cards would be declared the winner.

Todd Keefe initiated the project by announcing the contest to the student council. Under the direction of Mrs. Droney the contest began at Lowell High around October 26, 1985. Upon entering the contest, it was thought that only about 20,000 cards would be needed for Lowell to win. As the craze grew, that prediction became minimal. Halfway through the contest, the supply of index cards in the state of Massachusetts had been exhausted, forcing WBCN to change its rules....paper cut to 3x5 size could be used.

This marked the point when custodians started complaining about the paper blizzard which covered the floors of every corridor and room of our school. It was worth it, however. The week of Nov. 11, 1985 was one to be remembered. The school gathered its forces; teachers, students, and even parents united to prove that Lowell High School's spirit was the best. The long hours, writer's cramps, and hard work paid off!!!

On Nov. 21, 1985 over students met in the teacher's lounge to find out if Lowell had won. All held their breaths in anticipation as WBCN read off the countdown. After hearing that Marshfield High had taken second place out of a total of 35 schools, Lowell High knew that they had won. Lowell, now the state's # 1 in School Spirit. We rejoiced by singing "We Are The Champions". On Dec. 3, 1985 (a tuesday of course) over 2,000 teenagers streamed into Lowell Memorial Auditorium to watch as Headmaster Peter Stamas received a check for $5004 and to see 'til tuesday present a personal concert for them. School spirit could be felt everywhere. Our school was victorious and they showed their happiness and pride to everyone-including 'til tuesday.

Freeze Frame

Homecoming

The Homecoming Game against Dracut was a big victory for our slow-starting football team. Lowell High's great defense led the Raiders to a 10-6 victory.

At halftime, Homecoming Queen, Kathy Vail, was crowned by last year's queen, Amy Lekites. Her court consisted of Junior, Jennifer Desmond, Sophomore, Christine Carrico, and Freshmen, Donna Finneral. Trudy Michel, President of the Friends of Lowell High, presented the Queen and her court with their trophies. It was a night these four lucky girls would not soon forget.

Girls Battle it Out

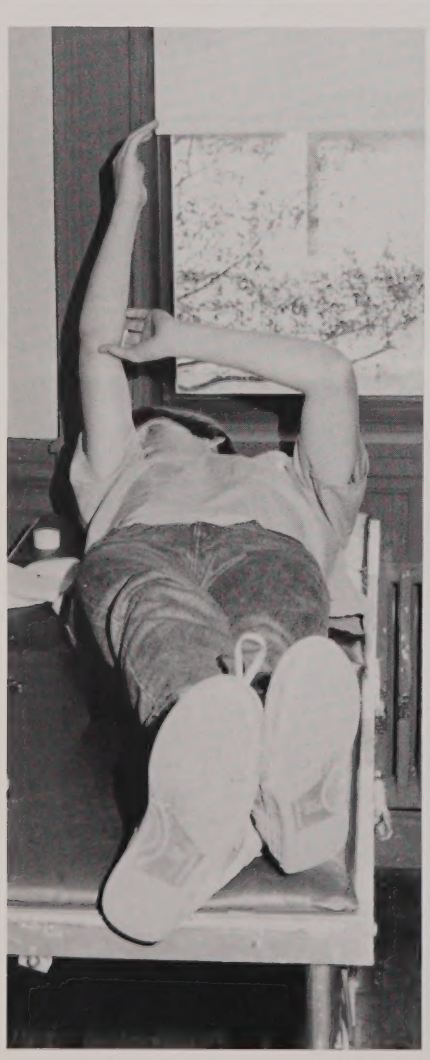
On October 14, 1985, the Powder Puff football game was resumed. It was the first game held since 1980. The senior girls defeated the junior girls by a score of 24-14. With the awesome coaching staff of Scott Basset, Bob Dyer, Kevin Dunn, and trainer Don Perigny, victory was but all assured. Marybeth McKenney, who received the game ball, ran wild across Shedd Park, scoring 3 touchdowns along the way. Keri Regan picked up the remaining 6 points for the winners. It was a rough game full of bumps, cuts and bruises. The only real injury was Maria Picanso's sprained ankle. There were some conflicts apart from the game as which Gianoulis sister was tougher---Gail or Donna, the junior MVP. John Tighe, Paul Haley, TJ McCarthy and John Broderick served as the junior coaching staff. Before the game it was decided that the winning team would get to paint their names on "The Rock". The seniors, ever so gracious in victory, allowed the juniors to paint their names on it as well. It was a great ending to an exciting day for both classes.

Harvest

The annual Harvest Ball was held on November 22nd at the Speare House. The girl officers did a great job decorating the room with colored balloons, streamers, and assorted flowers which enhanced the colors in the girls' dresses. Not even the rain could dampen our spirits. We danced the night away to music provided by a disc jockey instead of the traditional band. Although it was one of the main topics of conversation since the beginning of the year, November rolled around more quickly than expected. People were saying "Who am I going ask?", "What am I going to wear?", "Are we taking limos or junks?", and "Remember, no driving after 1:00!" . . . Parties, parties, parties . . . but "Don't forget to be there by 9:00!" . . . "Pictures, Yuk!" . . . "Did anyone stay with their dates?" . . . "We're just going as friends" . . . "Don't stay out too late" . . . "Remember your parents said behave" . .

It Takes All Types

If you were one of the donors who participated in the Blood Drive you know what it was like. Once you arrived in Room 108, you discovered that not only did they want your blood, but they made you wait in line to give it. Students fainting really added to the drama. As you stood playing "Twenty Questions" with the nurses, you were pricked in the finger by them and became more anxious as time passed. All in all, you might ask if the whole thing was worth it? Considering that one got out of at least one class, received some light refreshments and that the giving of blood was not even painful, to say nothing of the good cause involved, the answer is plain to see.



Teacher Appreciation Night

This year's Appreciation Dinner, hosted by the students in honor of the faculty, took place on November 25th. With the help of Cafeteria Director Pat Archambault,the committe of students produced an outstanding spaghetti supper. Faculty members enjoyed a delicious meal, served by their students, while listening to the festive band.

The dinner enabled the student workers to give something special back to the faculty, who have supported and helped the students throughout their years at LHS. The time spent in the preparation and serving of the food, and even the cleaning up afterward, proved most enjoyable for everyone involved.

Fashion - What clicks in 86'

Another way in which we will remember the year 1986 is through its fashion. The look is vivid colors, in an array of designs, but with an air of effortless dressing.Anything goes --- from oversized shirts, sweaters with tight stirrup pants to splashy Hawaiian prints in a variety of colors.

What clicks: Guess jeans ... paisley ... Reeboks ... swatches ... jams ... costume jewelry ... Kenya bags ... tank tops ... sweats ... big belts ... shades ... flowered ... Miami Vice look ...walking shorts

In Memoriam

The Lowell High School community was saddened this year by the deaths of two of its members — Guidance Counselor Mary E. Stroumbos and Senior Class Member Chulathy Long. Both exhibited courage in the face of illness and both were devoted to LHS. May their souls rest in peace.

Mary Stroumbos was kind, patient, calm, organized and efficient — but also a counselor who conveyed a sense of warmth and concern for her students. She had a real talent for finding alternative solutions to sticky scheduling or course selection problems. For 18 years, she served both students and the school admirably.

NOTHING GOLD CAN STAY

Nature's first green is gold,

Her hardest hue to hold,

Her early leaf's a flower:

But only so an hour.

Then leaf subsides to leaf.

So Eden sank to grief,

So dawn goes down today.

Nothing gold can stay.

Robert Frost

Chulathy Long was a young woman whose education was very important to her. In the quest of a diploma, she battled illness with great determination and spirit, in order to attend classes and to keep up with her school work. Her example stands as a model for all students.

With Appreciation

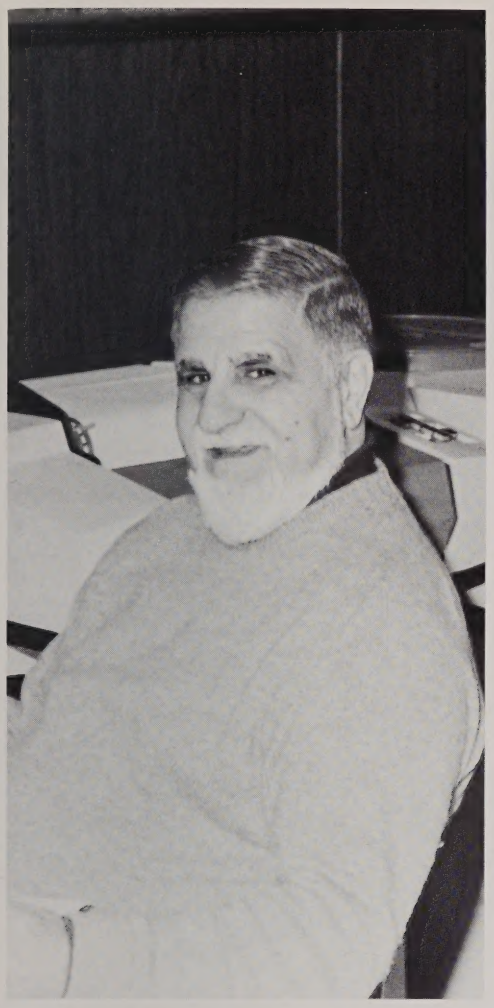
June of 1986 marked our class graduation and the retirement of ten faculty members. Their combined years of service to LHS stands at 243 years — a remarkable commitment. The school will miss them and we shall remember them with affection. Our thanks and our wishes for their future happiness go with them as they leave Lowell High.

Barbara Foye — 19 years of service at LHS — English Department

Mary Fitzgerald — 34 years of service at LHS — Business Education Department — Chairman of the Department

Rita Lamond — 15 years of service at LHS — School Librarian

Mary Callary — 18 years of service ot LHS — Spanish Department



Harry Petros — 27 years of service at LHS — Director of Data Processing

Vernon Smith — 16 years of service at LHS — Mathmatics Department

Thaddeus Wyrostek — 19 years of service at LHS — Business Education

J. Arthur Pard — 25 years of service at LHS — Mathematics Department

John Beaulieu — 30 years of service at LHS — Military Science, Health and Physical Education

In Gratitude

We must pay special tribute to one of our retirees — Stanley Stoklosa, president of the LHS Class of 1935 and member of the school's varsity baseball team. In 1942, he became a faculty member as a teacher of Accounting, Business Mathematics and Business Law. His preferred subject was Accounting. From 1945 to 1968, he also served as the baseball coach. Over the years, his teams, as members of the Greater Boston and Essex County Leagues, won 3 League Championships and participated in 5 State Tournaments. Sixteen of his LHS players signed professional baseball contracts. His overall coaching record was 286 wins, 171 losses, and 3 ties. As a result of this impressive showing, he was voted into the Massachusetts State Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in 1973. For the final nineteen years of his time at Lowell High, Mr. Stoklosa was Master of the school, completing a 44 year career, as teacher, coach and administrator. The Class of 1986 wishes him health and happiness.

Headmaster

Each graduating class has its own set of special memories. Some of these are intimate; some belong to the class as a whole, and others are of historical significance. Two such events highlight 1986 — 1) the Challenger disaster and the loss of Christa McAuliffe and the 6 other Astronauts and 2) the Centennial Celebration of the Statue of Liberty. These exemplify attributes to be emulated: courage, sacrifice, perserverence, dedication, vision, hope and the pursuit of liberty, opportunity, and excellence. The community of Lowell High School wishes the best for all of our 1986 graduates.

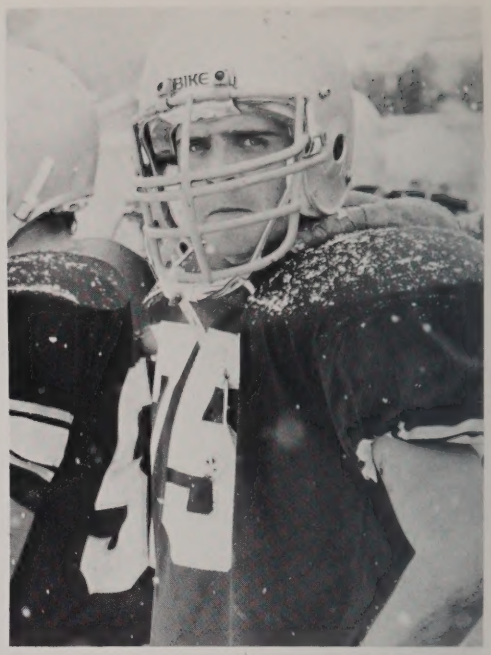
Football



The Lowell High School football team started off slowly, losing three of their first four games, but forged on to win five consecutive games. Unfortunately, the season ended Thanksgiving day on a low note, losing a heartbreaker (19-18.) Captain Ed Jaracz, who anchored both the offensive and defensive lines, was named a two-way MVC All-Star. He also earned a starting position on the offensive line for the Division I All-Star team. John Durgin, standout runningback, was also honored by the MVC as an All-Star.

Boys Soccer

The boys' soccer team had one of its finest seasons ever in 1985-86, and earned a berth in the state touranament. Even though the year ended on the downswing with a (1-0) loss Billerica in the first round of the tourney, the players felt it had been an excellent one.

Senior Mike Bertos compiled an impressive record by scoring 50 goals (the most in the state) and by being named to the Globe and Herald All-Star teams, as well as being both the MVC and Lowell Sun Player of the Year.

The following players were honored at the Friends of Lowell High School fall sports award:

Girls Gymnastics

Although the LHS Gymnastics team consisted of only eight members this year, it still managed to place second in the MVC. Arch rival, Dracut beat the Raiders for the fourth year in a row to claim the conference title. Even though the group was small in number, it was large in spirit.

Honored at the Friends of Lowell High School Winter Sports Award Night were Cheryle Dalton, selected MVP, and the remaining squad members selected for Coaches' Awards.

Hockey

Varsity Hockey - Unforseen circumstances dealt a great blow to the LHS Hockey team. First year coach Joe Miller began his coaching stint with a largely inexperienced team. Despite this, and a 3 win-15 loss record, Lowell did not play that badly. Many close games were lost in the final minutes - some going right down to the wire. There were two very impressive wins against Methuen (9 - 5) and Haverhill (6 -1).

Boys Spring Track

The LHS boy's spring track team posted a losing season in the fast lane of the Merrimack Valley Conference. Lack of experience among the Raiders contributed to the poor showing. If, however; success was determined by scores alone, the 85-86 season would rank a failure but the Raiders true success lay in the manner in which they conducted themselves in defeat. Honored at the Friends of Lowell High Spring Sports Award night were:
Most Valuable - Terry Moran
Most Improved - Steve O'Mally
Coaches Award - Dave Lamarre
Memories: - Tyler Dyer's noteworthy 4th place finish in the pole vault during the Eastern Massachusetts Championship Meet... Dave Lamarre's oustanding performances... Terry Moran, the leading scorer for the team... Working on tans during practices until the "The Talk"... more runners should have left basketball for the track team two years sooner... The win against Dracut.

Girls Spring Track

Girls Spring Track - The 1986 Lowell High Track team had one of its finest seasons, compiling a 6-1 record. The team, one of the most well rounded in recent years, finished second in a tough MVC and placed seventh in the States. The 24 points scored at the State meet were the largest amount scored by a LHS squad. LHS Records Broken: Triple Jump - Tricia Hagler 330 Low Hurdles - Tracey Abbott 4 x 110 Relay - Marybeth McKenney, Mercedes Milligan, Tricia Hagler, Kara Liston. The Relay placed first in the Sectionals, second in the Class A State meet and third in All-States, qualifying for New Englands. Sun All-Stars - Relay Team - Marybeth McKenney, Mercedes Milligan, Tricia Hagler, Kara Liston. MVC - 4x110 relay, 4x440 - Katie Stewart, Kelly Flynn, Andrea Gilman, Tracey Abbott MVP - Relay Team MIP - Cheryl Dalton Coaches - Katie Stewart.

Boys Tennis

Boy's Tennis - Even though the boy's varsity tennis team had only one Senior player, Brad Quenneville, it finished the season with a respectable .500 average. The high point of the year occurred when the squad upset tournament-bound Billerica. Kevin O'Brien, in the second singles position, led the Raiders with a 9-3 record, while the first doubles team of John Silveria and Shawn Carmody posted a tally of 7-3. Honored at the Friends of Lowell High Spring Sprorts Award-Night were: Most Valuable - Roger Landry, Most Improved - Dave Spenard, Coaches' Award - Dan Cronin. Memories: Roger beating Methuen's Scott Mahoney... getting along with Coach Davis... "Knucklehead"... "Dodger"... "Nards"... beating Peter Stamas (?) and Jack Donlon (?) of Lawrence High School.

The Science Club under the direction of Advisor Athena Letsou and President Todd Keefe, had a very successful year. The club organized a tutoring program which helped many students to improve their science grades. The organization, which has a membership of 130 was very involved in sponsoring the Science Fair. Each year a club member represents LHS at the State Science Fair conducted at MIT. Other activities included the Daffodil Sale for the American Cancer Society and the presentation of programs featuring speakers from scientific or engineering companies, who discussed the state of the art in various technologies.

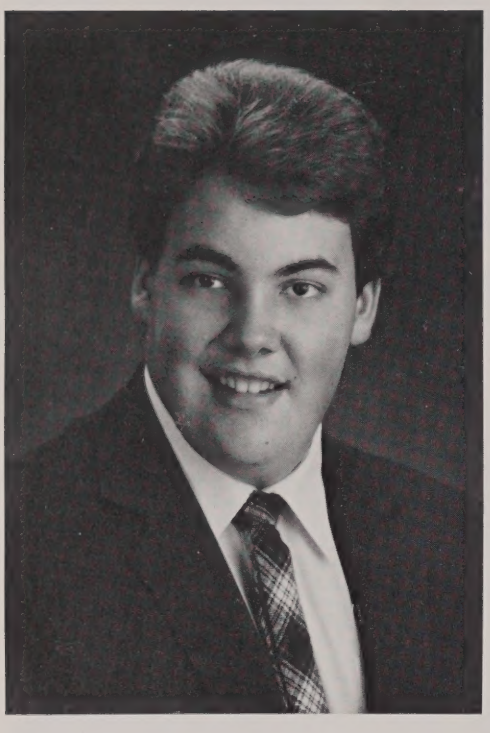
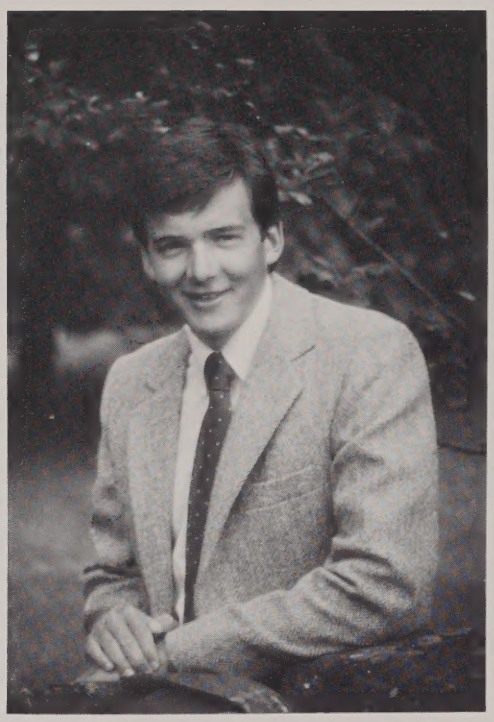
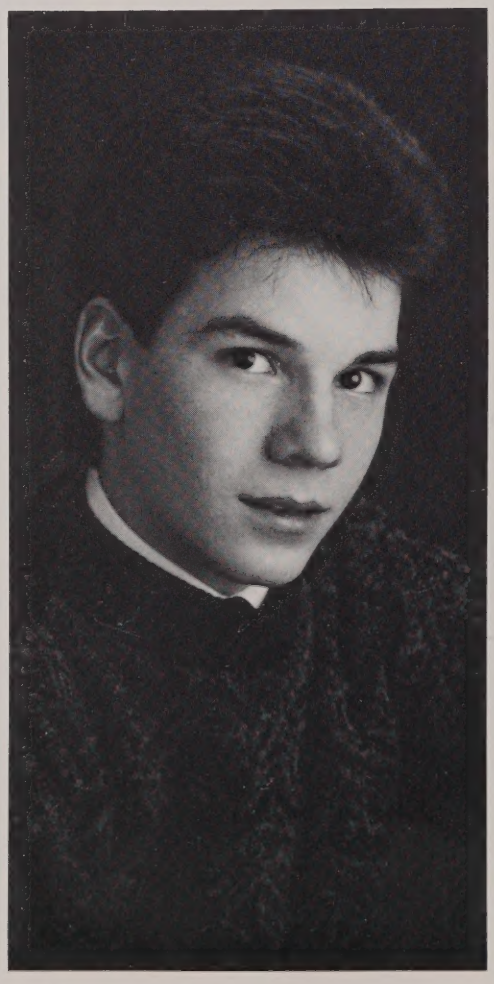
The Yearbook Staff







Mark Twain once said, "Work and play are words used to describe the same thing under differing conditions." You brought this to our attention and gave us the backbone to create a book which reflects the feeling of our class. We struggled through thick and thin, and your sweat and tears gave us drive and creativity.

We, the staff, want to take this time to express to you our sincere appreciation. Your dedication and patience during the formation of our edition helped us to add adventure and innovation to the traditional yearbook of Lowell High School. You have been the cornerstone which supported the frame and we simply want to thank you Mrs. Coughlin.

The Yearbook Advisor

My best wishes go to the entire class. You leave our school many happy memories of yourselves. I hope that as time passes, you will enjoy your yearbook more. It is a record of accomplishments because yours was an outstanding class.

In order to produce this book, the editorial board gave generously of their time and talents, to a degree which cannot be fully appreciated. I commend to you — Paul Dunfey, Brian Leahey, Demetra Nicolakakis, Scott Pepin and Maria Picanso. Without them, there would be no LHS 1986 Spindle.
